1. Notice of Allegations

Organizations
When an allegation is received against a student organization, the Office of Conflict Resolution and Student Conduct will send the organization written notification. This notice will inform the organization of the allegations and the specific potential policy, rule, or regulations the student organization may be charged with having violated. Generally, the notice will be sent to the organization's president. Also, the notice will include the time, date, and location of an intake meeting to respond to the allegations.

Advisors
In addition to providing notice of allegations to the student organization, the Office of Conflict Resolution and Student Conduct will notify the organizational advisor on record of the allegations and the specific policy, rule, or regulations the student organization may be charged with having violated. The notice will include the time, date, and location of an intake meeting to respond to the allegations.

National or International Organization
If an allegation includes dangerous organizational misconduct and/or a serious injury or death, the Office of Conflict Resolution and Student Conduct will notify the national or international organization of the allegations and the specific potential policy, rule, or regulations the student organization may be charged with having violated. Also, national or international organizations will be notified if an organization is issued interim measures under DSA.SC.300.030.

2. Intake Meeting

During the intake meeting, the student organization will be informed of the conduct process, the incident and potential charges. If it is appropriate for the incident to be resolved informally through alternative dispute resolution, the Office of Conflict Resolution and Student Conduct or Dean of Students Office will work with the organization to develop an agreement, and the case will be closed as soon as the terms of the agreement are met. If informal resolution is not an option, based on the serious nature of the allegations or the organization's response, the incident will be resolved through an administrative agreement or forwarded to the University Judicial Council or appropriate governing council.
3. Resolution Options

Administrative Agreement
Generally, if an organization accepts responsibility for the allegations described in the complaint, the organization can enter into an administrative agreement with the Office of Conflict Resolution or the Office of the Dean of Students depending on which office managed the case. This agreement will include sanctions and educational measures the organization agrees to complete.

Hearing
Generally, if a student organization denies responsibility for the allegations in the complaint, the case will be forwarded to the University Judicial Council, and the hearing process will be followed as outlined in University of Mississippi Policy, DSA.SC.300.010.

Appeal
Under certain conditions, the organization may appeal the findings and/or sanctions of the hearing board. The process of appeal is outlined in University of Mississippi Policy DSA.SC.300.010.
