Direct Cost Charging to Contracts or Grants

Summary/Purpose: Project directors have ultimate responsibility for defending all costs charged to their sponsored projects. However, project directors may contact the Contracts and Grants Office in advance of charging an item if there is a question or concern about the appropriateness of the charge.