Approval to Alter University Buildings

Summary/Purpose: Anyone wishing to alter, add to, or change any University building must first receive written approval from the Department of Facilities Planning.

Anyone wishing to alter, add to, or change any University building must first receive written approval from the Department of Facilities Planning.