Interfering with the Property Rights of Others
DSA.SC.200.040

Summary/Purpose: To promote good stewardship by informing students of their duty to refrain from theft of property and/or identity and any other interference with the property rights of others.

As good stewards of resources, students will refrain from intentionally interfering with the property rights of others. Behaviors that are inconsistent with this value are theft, attempted theft, unauthorized possession of, or causing damage to the property of others, or the possession, retention, or disposal of stolen property. Theft of another’s identity also is prohibited under this policy. Students who act inconsistently with this value and policy will be subject to conduct charges and proceedings.
