Policy delegating to the Institutional Review Board the proposal, development, and approval of policies pertaining to the Institutional Review Board.

1. Definition of the discrete category of University Policies affected.
   - This policy covers only policies bearing on the functions of the Institutional Review Board, which are based on federal and state law (Code of Federal Regulations, Title 45 Part 46 and Title 21 Part 50: Protection of Human Subjects, Mississippi Code § 41-41-17, and the accrediting body endorsed by the DHHS Office of Human Research Protections (OHRP), the Association for the Accreditation of Human Research Protection Programs (AAHRPP).

   - Policies are proposed based on requirements of the federal regulations and the interpretation of those regulations to protect human research subjects by authorized OHRP personnel and by AAHRPP.
   - Suggestions for new proposals and review for merit come from the IRB Chair and from IRB members.
   - The IRB consults with the Vice Chancellor of Research and Sponsored Programs, the University Attorneys, and other administrative and academic departments that conduct human subjects research on policy development as deemed necessary by the IRB.

   - Final policy approval requires a majority vote of a quorum meeting of the IRB.

   - The Responsible Office, the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs Division of Research Integrity and Compliance, will schedule policy reviews for usefulness and consistency with applicable federal and state laws and regulations, IHL Policies and Bylaws, and other University Policies every three years following policy approval or more frequently.
   - If the IRB determines that changes to an IRB Policy are necessary or prudent as a part of the Scheduled Review or at any other time, the IRB may propose a policy change consistent with this Policy.
